PROFILE

I am a recent graduate with skills in programming and system architecture. I enjoy at diving into complex problems and solving them efficiently. As a team player with an eye for detail and precision, I am a loyal employee who thrives in collaboration with colleagues.

PROJECTS

APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT
During my studies, I collaborated with classmates to develop an Android application using Kotlin and Android Studio. The app utilized REST APIs to fetch weather data and display suitable locations for skydiving, focusing on an intuitive user interface and efficient data processing.

INTERPRETER DEVELOPMENT
I developed an interpreter to process a programming language designed by one of my professors at the University of Oslo, using Java as the programming language.

EXPERIENCE

STORE ASSOCIATE AND KEY HOLDER
Rema 1000 Kjelsås, 2019 – Present
